

Join us to celebrate the launch of MU's
INSTITUTE FOR KOREAN STUDIES (IKS)

With a special event:

Film Screening & Remarks by Grace Jo:

“From North Korean Refugee to American Citizen”

Screening of “I Am Grace” (Christopher H.K. Lee, dir.)

Thursday, February 9, 2017, 3:00pm
Jesse Wrench Auditorium, Memorial South

Activist and public speaker Grace Jo began a new life after fleeing North Korea as a refugee. The award-winning documentary “I am Grace” profiles her courageous journey from North Korea to becoming a US citizen. She now lives near Washington, DC, and speaks about the importance of freedom and human rights in her work with NKinUSA, a North Korean refugees’ advocacy organization.

Visit IKS at korea.missouri.edu

Supported by the Asian Affairs Center & the Departments of History and Political Science

University of Missouri