

MU Institute for Korean Studies (MU-IKS)
미주리대학교 한국학 연구소

University of Missouri

IKS Invited Speaker Series

Autocratization and Public Health Outcomes: The Cases of Korea, India, and Venezuela

Ben Byunghwan Son

Associate Professor, Global Affairs Program, and Director of Asia-Pacific and Northeast Asian Studies at George Mason University

Prof. Son, a proud Mizzou Political Science alum, is an expert in the comparative political economy of Asia. His recent work examines issues of inequality and democratic support, public confidence in governments, and exchange rate regimes/international reserves and is published in leading field journals, such as the Journal of Politics, Journal of East Asian Studies, and International Political Science Review.

Date & Time

Friday, October 16, 2020

Research Talk (Open to Public):
2:00-3:00 PM (CST)

Mentorship Session (Open to Graduate Students):
3:15-4:00 PM (CST)

Registration

This is a virtual event. Please register for the event link at: <https://tinyurl.com/y6kltkw8>.

